List of Web Pages and their Purpose:

Web Pages	Purpose
Home (Index) Page	Serves as the introduction to the portfolio. It provides visitors with a welcoming overview of the site's content and structure. This page sets the tone for the rest of the portfolio and acts as a home base since the website logo on all websites leads back to it.
Professional Page	Presents a detailed view of my academic and professional qualifications. It features a resume that highlights my skills, education, work experiences and certifications. It also includes my professional vision and mission statement.
Personality Page	Offers a personal insight into who I am beyond my professional skills. It showcases my traits, hobbies, and inspirations, and highlights how these aspects contribute to my academic life and career development
Personal Development Page	Focuses on my growth and reflections based on lessons from resources like “Twelve Pillars”. It also illustrates skills I have acquired in pursuit of my degree.
Storyboard Page	Offers a behind-the-scenes look at the design process of my portfolio. It includes wireframes, the site's theme, its intended audience and the purpose of each web page.
References Page	All the resources and references I have used to gather insights and knowledge are cited here in APA format.

Theme of the Website:

The websites within the portfolio share a simple yet appealing theme. Bright colors are used for each page which gives a youthful charm to the website, keeping the overall aesthetic the same, but with a visual twist. The target audience for this site is the average web user, meaning the website was made to be easily navigable and visually engaging.
